Mariano Rivera

Major League Baseball Hall of Fame Pitcher, Philanthropist, and Presidential Medal of Freedom Recipient

Mariano Rivera is a Panamanian American professional baseball pitcher who played 19 seasons in Major League Baseball with the New York Yankees from 1995-2013.

A thirteen-time All Star and five-time World Series champion, he is MLB's career leader in saves (652) and games finished (952). In addition to the numerous American League awards he won, he was inducted in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2019, in his first year of eligibility, and was the first and only player to ever be elected unanimously by the Baseball Writer's Association of America (BBWAA).

Rivera is regarded as one of the most dominant relievers in major league history. Pitching with a longevity and consistency to the closer role he saved at least 25 games in 15 consecutive seasons and posted an ERA under 2.00 in 11 seasons, both of which are records. Along with his signature cut fastball pitch, Rivera was known for his precise control, smooth pitching motion, and composure on the field. In 2013, the Yankees retired his uniform number 42; he was the last major league player to wear the number full-time, following its league-wide retirement in 1997 in honor of Jackie Robinson.

A devout Christian, he has been involved in charitable causes and the religious community through the Mariano Rivera Foundation. For his philanthropy, Rivera received the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award in the United States, in September 2019. He and his wife, Clara, have three sons and live in New York.

“Mariano tells the story of a humble man of deep faith doing great things under enormous pressure. ‘I am an imperfect man on an imperfect journey’... And what a journey it’s been.”

— Steven V. Roberts
Washington Post

Don't miss this inspiring discussion as this baseball great talks about overcoming adversity and becoming a champion, not only in sports ... but in life.

CI FACILITY TOUR

MONROE CORRECTIONAL COMPLEX

Hosted by Washington State Correctional Industries

Thursday, April 27, 2023
Departure 8:00 AM | Return 12:00 PM

Tour Registrants may be required to show proof of COVID vaccination.

Tour is subject to cancellation at the discretion of WA State Department of Corrections.

Join Washington State Correctional Industries (CI) as we tour and take an inside look into operations at the Monroe Correctional Complex (MCC). The complex houses up to 2,400 adult males consisting of maximum, close, medium and minimum custody levels. The Washington State Reformatory opened in 1910, making it the second oldest operational prison in Washington state, behind the Washington State Penitentiary. Today, MCC is one large complex consisting of five separate facilities; the Washington State Reformatory Unit; the Special Offender Unit (opened 1980); the Twin Rivers Corrections Center (opened 1984 and now known as the Twin Rivers Unit); and the Minimum Security Unit (opened in 1997). The Intensive Management Unit is a security level five facility and is the newest addition to the MCC (opened 2007).

Washington State CI operations at the MCC covers roughly 210,000 square feet of manufacturing and services floor space. Programs include bulk sales, commissary, food packages, food service, laundry, and monthly property packages.

During the tour, you will have the opportunity to see one of Washington State CI's largest commissaries serving the incarcerated population from seven facilities west of the Cascade Range.

MEET CALPIA'S NEWEST SUCCESS STORY

ALBERT CARMONA

ALBERT CARMONA graduated from the California Prison Industry Authority's (CALPIA) Pre-Apprentice Construction Labor program. He received his essential job training at the California Institution for Men. Albert pursued all possible job opportunities and was able to get hired by the Southern California Laborers-Local 300.

“The training I learned through CALPIA helped me stay focus while I was in prison and see a future not only for me, but for my family. I wanted a better way of living and CALPIA was the answer to that when I got out of prison.”

Albert now works for Morley Builders. He is building high-rise luxury apartments in Los Angeles. He credits CALPIA, Local 300, and his former instructor Vincent Rodriguez.

“When I got out everything came together. Because of CALPIA and the Southern California Laborers, I was able to get off parole and keep my family intact. I have a successful career, not just a job. I look forward to going to work every day and having purpose.”
